

SAYING NO TO SEXUAL MISCONDUCT

IRAQ PSEA Network

We work together to ensure that you are safe and treated with dignity

You have the right to free humanitarian assistance. All humanitarian workers are prohibited from asking you for sex, money, goods or services, or to conduct any improper act such as kissing or touching.

You are pretty. If you give me your phone number, I will give you more assistance

If you suspect that you or any other beneficiary is mistreated by a humanitarian worker, report it. We will always listen to you and try to find a solution.

Stop Sexual Misconduct and report it through one of the following channels:

Iraq PSEA Network email address: Iraq-psea@un.org

Iraq Information Center (IIC) hotline: 800 69999

All information is treated with high confidentiality. Reporting will not affect your right to humanitarian assistance.

